Two Republicans Got Easy Nominations for Congress.

Expense accounts of candidates for office were received yesterday at the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, Geo. Nelson Wise, Republican nominee for Congress from the First District, and from W. R. Vawter, Republican nominee from the Third District.

Both of these leaders of forlorn hopes swear that they expended nothing at all to secure their nomination. In any manner or to any person, either for legal or illegal campaigning. Further, they did not promise to pay any one anything, nor, so far as they know, did any of their friends pay or

PRIZES FOR BOYS

Virginia Will Have Chance to Compete in Corn Exhibit.

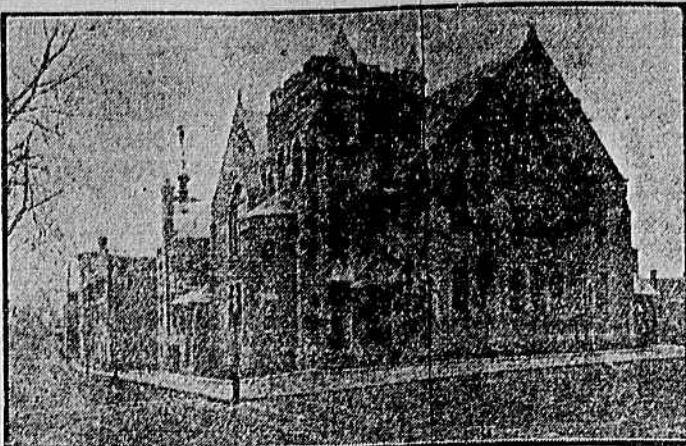

Valuable prizes are to be given to the boys who raise corn by the Bureau of Plant Industry of the Department of Agriculture, and Virginia boys will be eligible. The corn raised is to be exhibited at the National Corn Exposition, to be held at Columbus, Ohio, from January 30, to February 11, 1911.

A brush runaway automobile will go to one boy. Besides, there will be many money prizes and trips to Washington.

Information to this effect was received yesterday by J. D. Eggleston, Jr., Superintendent of Public Instruction, from O. E. Martin, of the bureau. Mr. Martin says he has already heard that records of 100 bushels and more to the acre are being made by boys. He asks that the reports and exhibits which come to the Virginia department be carefully preserved for use in this contest.

Mr. Eggleston is much impressed with the interest being taken in some of the Virginia counties in having competitive exhibits of the products of boys and girls. In some instances these are connected with county fairs,

Church Where Sessions of Synod Are Being Held and Its Pastor

Presbyterian Church, Charlottesville.

DR. RUSSELL CECIL MADE MODERATOR

Presbyterian Synod of Virginia in Session at Charlottesville.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., October 13.—The Presbyterian Synod of Virginia began its one hundred and twenty-third annual session here to-night. The attendance is very large, and a fine body of men the members are. The opening sermon was preached by Rev. W. W. Moore, D. D., the president of Union Theological Seminary, in Richmond. He took as his text Colossians 4:17, "And say to Archippus, take heed the ministry, which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfill it."

His sermon was a most earnest and eloquent appeal to ministers to be faithful in the discharge of the duties of their high office, and it made a deep impression upon the synod and the large congregation which filled the church to overflowing.

When the call for nomination of moderator was made, Dr. R. H. Fleming, of Lynchburg, nominated Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., of Richmond, and Rev. W. H. Groves, of Norfolk, placed Rev. Joseph Rennie, D. D., of that city, in nomination. Dr. Cecil was elected. Rev. C. D. Gilkeson and Rev. H. H. Hudson were elected clerks. Just before the close of the meeting to-night Rev. Dr. Petrie, the pastor of the church, made a graceful speech of welcome to the synod.

ONLY SCHOOL OF ITS KIND.

Institution for Making Negro Ministers and Missionaries Opens in Durham.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Durham, N. C., October 13.—The National Religious Training School and Chautauque for colored people opened yesterday morning with an attendance of 100, and entered upon its work of making ministers and missionaries, a school peculiar to itself and without an equal to it.

The board of advisers went into executive session a short while after the school was opened by Mrs. Emma F. Hahn, of New York. Mrs. Hahn made an excellent address, in which she urged a greater pride of ancestry on the part of the colored people and agreed with Dr. Booker T. Washington that the blacks should prepare themselves for better citizenship. There were present Rev. James C. Massee, D. D., of Chattanooga; Judge Jeter C. Pritchard and N. B. Broughton from other cities, and one of the most interesting addresses made was by Brodie L. Duke, who gave $3,000 and considerable land to make the site.

Dr. Massee's address last night, given to a mass-meeting of the colored people, he declared that President James E. Shennott should make no apology for calling this a religious school. "Andrew Carnegie has done more to hurt Christian education than any man of this generation," he said. The making of religious people is the chief aim of the school and all other things will be subordinated to it.

Trains Will Be Discontinued.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Bristol, Va., October 13.—Following the closing of the Appalachian Exposition at Knoxville, on Wednesday, it is announced that the Southern Railway will discontinue the trains No. 21 and No. 25, which were put on to accommodate the exposition travel between Bristol and Knoxville. These trains will be taken off Saturday.

Bristol and the people of the surrounding country patronized the exposition liberally. 1,225 round-trip tickets having been sold from the Bristol office of the Southern Railway during the thirty days of the exposition.

WILL BE LOCATED AT SALEM.

Proposition for Female College Is Favorably Acted On.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Roanoke, Va., October 13.—A committee appointed from the Southwest Virginia Synods of the Lutheran Church met to-day in Salem, and decided to recommend to synods at the meeting to be held November 15, or as soon thereafter as possible, that Salem's proposition to give the beautiful Loran home as a site and $10,000 to secure the Lutheran Female College, now located at Marion, be accepted. Several towns in the Southwest were after the school.

MAN'S BODY IDENTIFIED.

Letters Show That Remains Were Those of Frank Duval—Other News.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Williamsburg, Va., October 13.—Letters found in the clothing of a white man whose dead body was found beside the Chesapeake and Ohio tracks Tuesday morning, near Grove Station, identified him as Frank Duval. The letters, which were from the dead man's mother, were postmarked Washington, D. C., and addressed to City Jail, Richmond. They begged the man to leave Richmond, and go to Norfolk, saying she had sent him the last dollar she had, but would send him $5 in a few days. The body, from which one leg was missing, was buried near where it was found after an inquest was held.

Hugh S. Bird will resign as superintendent of schools for James City county and the city of Williamsburg November 1. There are no candidates to succeed him, but it is thought a professor at William and Mary will be chosen.

The board of directors of the Eastern State Hospital met at that institution Tuesday, those present being Dr. H. V. Stephenson, of Toano, and A. Osborne, of the new appointee. Mr. Osborne took the oath of office here yesterday before entering upon his duties. Contracts for supplies for the next quarter were awarded, there being a number of successful Richmond bidders.

Cottolene

The way to healthful cooking is to start right—with Cottolene.

Cottolene-cooked food agrees with one because Cottolene contains not an ounce of hog fat—it is a vegetable instead of an animal product. Its wholesomeness and purity are vouched for by Nature. Cottolene is "the fat from the flower."

All the country's best cooks—Mrs. Mary J. Lincoln, Mrs. Sarah Tyson Rorer, Mrs. Helen Armstrong, Marion Harland, Lida Ames Willis, and a dozen others of national reputation—recommended Cottolene in preference to lard or any other medium for frying and shortening.

Isn't the testimony of such experts worth something to you?

Order a pail of Cottolene from your grocer to-day and learn why it "shortens your food—lengthens your life."

OFFICERS' TABLE AT CITY HOSPITAL

Change in Duties Made by Committee to Clear Up Vexatious Situation.

NO ELECTION OF MATRON

Miss Bagby Again Declines, and Matter Is Postponed Until Monday Night.

In the hope of settling all differences at the City Home, the Council Committee on Relief of the Poor yesterday afternoon determined to create an officers' table, taking away from the matron the duty of running a private boarding establishment in the institution for officers and physicians. The matter of electing a matron was deferred until the regular meeting of the committee on Monday night, as it was believed that there would be other applicants, now that a burdensome part of the duties had been removed. The position of matron pays $42.50 per month, with light, heat, water and rooms in the institution, but she will be required to board herself. Board at the officers' table of the institution being fixed by resolution at $15 a month, the matron and internes being required to board in the home, while, with other officers, the use of the officers' table, provided at the fixed rate, is optional. Superintendent Cabell and several of his assistants will take advantage of the new arrangement.

Denies That There's Friction.

Miss Ida Bagby, who was elected matron at a previous meeting, had notified Chairman Hobson that she would not accept, as she preferred to continue as a nurse. The only application in writing was that of Miss Mary Polard, who was highly indorsed. Several other names, however, had been proposed to members of the committee. Superintendent Cabell denied that there was any friction in the institution, saying that Miss Bagby, who had been elected, was well qualified for the position if she would accept. He also indorsed the work of Miss Johnson, who has been acting matron since the marriage of her sister, Mrs. MacDougall.

Dr. Miller said that his experience with hospitals and institutions here and elsewhere had led him to believe that the home itself should conduct its officers' table and that it might be placed under charge of the matron as a part of her duties, since in previous years she has had time to run it as a private venture.

Declines by Telephone. After debate Mr. Umlauf's motion was adopted establishing the officers' table and making its operating a part of the duties of the matron and internes. On motion the internes were required to board at the hospital at a fixed rate of $15 a month each, other officers being privileged, but not required, to board there at the same rate. An appropriation of $50 was made to provide the necessary table and to keep an account of the furnishings and the steward was instructed to take the account of the income from it and to make a monthly report to the committee. Miss Bagby was notified of these changes in the duties of matron, and again declined by telephone to accept the position. So the election of a matron will be taken up at the regular meeting Monday night.

COMPANY RENEWS OPTIONS.

James City County Property May Be Bought by Cement Corporation.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Williamsburg, Va., October 13.—The Colonial Cement Corporation, which six months ago took options on about $10,000 worth of real estate in the lower part of James City county, yesterday renewed the options for another six months. This is the same corporation reported to have secured an option on "Carter's Grove" for $350,000. "Carter's Grove," which was owned by the late Mrs. Margaret Bland, is now to be sold by order of the court. There is no option on this estate, but it is heavily mortgaged.

Stemple—Carrington.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) South Boston, Va., October 13.—"Oak Cliffe," the old ancestral home of the Carringtons, in southern Halifax, near the junction of the James and York rivers, was the scene of a beautiful wedding yesterday at 1 o'clock, when Miss Annie Josephine Carrington became the bride of John Bray Stemple. The bride's pastor, Rev. V. R. Turner, of the Methodist Church, was the celebrant, the ring ceremony being used.

The dame of honor was Mrs. S. C. Morton, Jr., of South Boston, and Miss Mattie Cabanis was maid of honor. The bride entered the parlor with her father, William H. Carrington, and the groom came in with John D. Fry, of South Boston, his best man.

Just before the ceremony Mrs. Chas. M. Jordan, of South Boston, sang "Oh, Promise Me," and while the vows were being taken Miss Rose Crowley, of Albemarle, played "Hearts and Flowers," followed by the wedding march, which was rendered by Mrs. V. R. Turner.

The color scheme was yellow, with a profusion of golden rods, autumn leaves and evergreen. Shortly after the ceremony an elegant luncheon was served, after which the couple drove to the railway station, where they boarded the westbound train for Ashland, where the honeymoon will be spent, and they will be at home near this place after October 25.

Norfolk Church Calls Rectory.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Norfolk, Va., October 13.—The parish of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Norfolk, has extended a call to Rev. Reuben Meredith, of Dinwiddie county, as rector. He is expected to accept. Mr. Meredith has been here and looked over the field closely, and the only obstacle is the fear that he would be unable to get some one to succeed to his work in his present field, where he is meeting with great success.

THREE NEGROES SENTENCED.

Charged With Disorder on a Richmond-Petersburg Car.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Chester, Va., October 13.—County Police Constable P. S. Watts, before the Squire G. E. Robertson, at this place yesterday three negro young men, charged with disorderly conduct on a Richmond-Petersburg electric car, on the interurban line. The negroes are workmen from the South, in employment in this state. Elijah Blackwell was sent to the grand jury for throwing stones at the car and cursing the motorman. John McMullen and Robert Barrett were sent to jail for thirty days each for being drunk and disorderly on the car.

Cooke—Woolling.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Fork Union, Va., October 13.—A beautiful home wedding took place here at Woollingville to-day, when Miss Lettie Woolling became the bride of John H. Cooke. The couple were married at the ceremony for Northern cities by way of Richmond.

ARREST TWO ON FEDERAL CHARGE

Andrews and Wife Bound Over to Grand Jury for Coloring Oleomargarine.

RAID WAS SENSATIONAL

Officers Surround House and Hold It Until They Can Get Warrant.

Acting on information secured from confidential sources on Monday, deputies from the Internal Revenue Department yesterday arrested E. A. Andrews and wife, of 2112 West Cary Street, on a charge of conducting an establishment for coloring oleomargarine without payment of the license as required by Federal statute. The prisoners were carried before United States Commissioner Joseph P. Brady, where they waived a preliminary and were bound over to the Federal grand jury, being bailed in the sum of $600.

The Revenue Department regards the case as one of first importance. Since Monday the Andrews house has been under surveillance. Early yesterday afternoon Chief Deputy Collector Thomas F. Meany, who planned the raid, went to the place accompanied by Deputy Ryall and Deputy Southward.

Three Men on Guard. The house was closed. With an officer at each of the exits, Mr. Meany knocked at the door and called for Andrews. His wife came to the window and said that he was not there, and when the door was finally opened the deputies entered and found five tubs in the kitchen, one of which they claimed was then being colored. While Deputies Meany and Ryall remained on the premises, Deputy Southward was hurried down town to secure a warrant.

While he was gone Andrews appeared, rather much excited, and when informed what had happened the officers said that he endeavored to put the blame on his wife. Southward came back presently with Deputy Marshal Merchant, and Andrews and his wife were arrested. They were taken to the Federal Building along with the oleomargarine, which was submitted as evidence.

Carries Heavy Penalty. Andrews and his wife are charged with violating sections 3 and 4 of the pure food law. Under this law all manufacturers of oleomargarine must pay an internal revenue tax of 1-4 of a cent per pound on the uncolored article and 10 cents per pound on the colored. By buying the uncolored article, it can be colored at practically no expense and an additional profit of 10 cents per pound made.

The penalty provided under the Federal law for violations of sections 3 and 4 of the act referred to is a fine of from $1,000 to $5,000 and imprisonment not to exceed two years.
